

UTILITY PROGRAMS (CONTACT YOUR UTILITY COMPANY TO APPLY)

- Discount Rate: Income-qualified utility customers can receive a discount on electric and gas utility bills.
- Arrearage Management Programs (AMPs): Each utility company offers special payment programs to eligible income-qualified customers with overdue utility bills, to help cancel these arrearages when customers enter a payment plan and make regular payments. Contact your utility company for details.

PROTECTIONS FROM UTILITY DISCONNECTION

 Contact your utility company or municipal utility to apply for special shut-off protections for income-qualified customers during the winter season, or for customers with a serious illness, infants, and seniors.

EMERGENCY UTILITY HELP

- Apply for help with rent, mortgage or utility bills. RAFT (Residential Assistance for Families in Transition) benefits can be used for utility payment help for qualified low-income renters and homeowners, for current or overdue utility bills and other expenses.
- Housing Consumer Education Centers are available to help.

FUEL ASSISTANCE OR HEAP (HOME ENERGY ASSISTANCE PROGRAM)

- HEAP applications are usually accepted beginning in early autumn and continuing into the winter and spring. Deadlines change each year – contact your local community action agency or other HEAP agency for more information.
- See the Massachusetts Cold Relief brochure for more information and where to apply, or call the Massachusetts Heatline at 800-632-8175.
- Apply for HEAP online at https://www.toapply.org/MassHEAP.
- The local community action agency or HEAP program may have information about other assistance available in the community, such as the Good Neighbor Energy Fund.

LEAN PROGRAM

 Free energy efficiency services for income-eligible households, apply through local community action agency or MassSave, more information here.

LIFELINE

 Households may also apply for Lifeline benefits for additional help with phone and internet costs.

Questions? Contact us at stayconnected@nclc.org.

The nonprofit National Consumer Law Center[®] (NCLC[®]) works for economic justice for low-income and other disadvantaged people in the U.S. through policy analysis and advocacy, publications, litigation, and training.