NOTICE OF WITHDRAWAL OF
PLAINTIFFS' MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION
OF THE COURT'S DECEMBER 30, 2004 ORDER

The Plaintiffs in this action, through their undersigned counsel, hereby withdraw their Motion for Reconsideration of the Court's December 30, 2004 Order. The Plaintiffs maintain, over Defendant's objection, that the Court erred as a matter of fact and law in holding that the Plaintiffs lack standing to seek declaratory and injunctive relief. However, the parties have decided to settle this action to avoid the cost, burden, and uncertainty of litigation, without any admissions or concessions by either Plaintiffs or Defendant on whether plaintiffs lack standing to seek declaratory and injunctive relief, whether a class should have been certified, whether Defendant could be found liable, or any of the other procedural or substantive issues in dispute in the action, thus rendering moot the Motion for Reconsideration.

Plaintiffs' Counsel

SO ORDERED:

Hon. Dennis M. Cavanaugh
